Ken & Carol Bunge
Adjunct Missionary

Rev. Ken Bunge assists with translating the Old Testament into modern Aramaic for the benefit of Chaldean Christians, who are from Iraq. Ken makes periodic trips to Detroit, where the Chaldean translator lives among the large population (approx. 121,000) of Chaldean Christians living there.

Ken served as an Arabic and Hebrew linguist for the Air Force until he retired in 2000. He received his Master of Divinity Degree in 2006 and then served two small congregations in rural Minnesota. He began full time service with Lutheran Bible Translators (LBT) in 2010.

Due to the nature of Ken’s role with the U.S.-based Chaldean translation project, Ken shifted from fulltime service to a part-time adjunct missionary role in 2018. His congregation in Texas is so proud to have a pastor who is an active Bible translator.

All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness.”
2 Timothy 3:16
