Michael Ersland
Ghana

Michael Ersland is excited to be living in Ghana as a translation advisor for the Komba Old Testament translation project. A solid group of people is standing with Michael and sending him into this service.

There is still room for you to join in that group and be part of what God is doing in Michael and among the Komba people.

Michael, the youngest of six children, grew up in three states. However, he spent most of his childhood in rural Kansas. His father, a Lutheran pastor, took a call to Oklahoma when Michael entered middle school.

During his teenage years, Michael began to be drawn to the international mission field. This interest drew him to Concordia University Wisconsin's strong mission program. His studies and mission related experiences (shadowing a missionary in Peru and LBT's Crossroads experience in Botswana, southern Africa) affirmed his missionary spirit and his call to cross cultural ministry. Michael completed his bachelor's degree in Biblical Languages for Translation and Missions in 2014.
